

LEADERSHIP

Occupational therapists making a difference

My leadership journey

Dr Anne Johnson

Consultant Occupational Therapist / Joint Clinical Lead and Operational Lead Bath Centre for Fatigue Services

My current roles

- Consultant Occupational Therapist NHS
- Macmillan Consultant Occupational Therapist
- Joint Clinical and Operational Lead Bath Centre for Fatigue Services
- Senior Lecturer University of West of England (UWE)
- Post-doctoral Researcher in Residence Fellowship with the Avon Primary Care Research Collaborative in knowledge mobilisation commenced March 2017 – May 2018

My leadership skills

- Effective Communication
- Resilience
- Teaching and lecturing skills
- Networking and influencing
- Ability to synthesise knowledge into practice
- Highly specialised skills and knowledge in field of practice
- Ability to challenge

Attributes and behaviours

- Confidence in what I know and what I do not know
- Emotional intelligence
- Positive attitude
- Commitment to lifelong learning for self and others
- Willingness to work inter-professionally
- Good sense of humour

Where my leadership has made an impact

Through service innovation and design, to provide services for people with CF/ME and then cancer related fatigue where none had previously existed.

LEADERSHIP

Occupational therapists making a difference

My key pivotal moments

Pivotal moment 3

1994 Senior I occupational therapist: rheumatology and chronic pain

Pivotal moments 5 -13

- 2000 Inaugural chair of the UK and Ireland Scleroderma Network
- 2000 Working with the Department for Work and Pensions following membership of the UK Medical Advisory Board for Fibromyalgia
- 2004 Lead role in writing a business case for funding CFS/ME services to the Department of Health with key partners
- 2004 Representing the College of Occupational Therapists in establishing the Council for Work and Health
- 2007 Master's in Applied Social Research
- 2009 Principal Lectureship secondment
- 2009 Member of the College of Occupational Therapists Professional Practice Board (3 year term)
- 2011 Consultant Occupational Therapist: Fatigue Management
- 2011 Member of College of Occupational Therapists Consultant Forum

Pivotal moments 1 & 2

- 1991 Newly qualified occupational therapist
- 1993 Senior II occupational therapist: brain injury and rheumatology

Pivotal moment 4

2000 Head occupational therapist: rheumatology, chronic pain and fatigue

Pivotal moments 14-17

- 2011 Entered on Department of Health AHP expert database
- 2011 Development of cancer survivorship service rheumatology
- 2016 Elected AHP consultant representative of the Council for Allied Health Professions Research National Strategic Committee
- 2017 Awarded a PhD
- 2017 Secondment fro UWE to Researcher in Residence Fellow with Avon Primary Care Research Collaborative

RCOT Career Development Framework (CDF) levels

